HALL PROSECUTOR SET BACK

PROSTRATED BY GREB'S DEATH. Sally Bronis (above) wept bitterly at news of death of Harry Greb, whom she recently sued for $100,000 heart balm. She's still confined to bed as result of recent suicide try. Greb (inset) succumbed after operation. (Photo Graphic.)

PERJURER? Judge Sabbath, in Chicago, today halted Ethel Dale's suit for divorce to find out if actress with "most beautiful legs in America" was telling truth when she swore she had been living there a year. If he finds otherwise, he'll file perjury complaint. (Photo Graphic.)

QUEEN'S BUSY DAY. Queen Marie was so busy meeting nation's money masters and inspecting Columbia University she couldn't find time to keep radio engagement last night. Exclusive GRAPHIC picture shows Marie greeting little girl on Columbia campus. (Photo Graphic.)
